Sexy Stories

A solo RPG journaling game for writing personalized smut

What you need: Quiet time, a pen, paper (or a notes app), and one or two six-sided dice (2d6). Being horny helps.

Setup Instructions

When the game calls for a 1d6: Roll a single die. When the game calls for D66: Roll two d6; the first die is tens, the second is ones (e.g., 2 then 4 → 24). Or roll a single die twice.

Step 1: Determine Number of Lovers

- Roll 1d6.
- Consult Table 1 to find how many lover characters (NPCs) will appear in your story.

Table 1: Number of Lovers in Story (1d6) 1–3: one lover, 4–5: two lovers, 6: three lovers

Step 2: Generate Story Seed Table 2

- Roll 2d6 for a D66 result
    - Example: Rolling 3 and 5 → entry 35
- Find this number on Table 2 and record your story seed.
- This seed is to help inspire the setting and situation for your story later.

Step 3: Create Your Main Character

- Record your character's name (MC).
- (Optional) Any notes or desires you want to fulfill in the story.

Step 4: Create Lover Characters

- For each lover (from Step 1), choose a name
- Roll 2d6 for each lover to determine their first fantasy using Table 3:
    - Example: Rolling 2 and 4 → entry 24
- Record each lover's name and first fantasy.

Intensity rule: Later, if a lover rolls the same kink again as their second fantasy, mark that kink with an asterisk (e.g., "Spanking*"). This signals the fantasy is even more naughty—lean in.

Sequence of Play

Phase 1: Write Scene 1 (Sexual Tension)

- Write a scene where each lover's first fantasy is revealed via confession, a risky joke, a held look, a game, or a slip of the tongue.
- Use your story seed to shape the setting and circumstances.
- Focus on anticipation and tension.

Phase 2: Roll Second Fantasies

- For each lover, roll 2d6 again on Table 3 to generate their second fantasy.
- Record the result; if it matches their first fantasy, add an asterisk to that kink to show heightened intensity.

Phase 3: Write Scene 2 (Sexual Release)

- Write a journal entry where characters act on their desires. This is the fun part. Let your filthy mind do what comes naturally and write what turns you on.
- Weave in as many revealed fantasies as feels arousing to you
- Conclude with fulfilment.

Phase 4: Epilogue (Optional)

- Write a brief conclusion about what changed for each character.
- Consider what they might desire next time.

Journaling advice

Keep each scene as a tight, sexy arousing vignette. If you have a favorite filthy bit of an erotic book or porn clip, then write it like that but with your twist. Shorter, explicit and to the point is often better.

Write what turns you on. You should craft the Lovers fantasies to fulfill your own. When you get that aroused feeling scanning the Kink table or it sparks an idea go with that and disregard the dice. Put sensations you enjoy on the page: glimpsed skin, fabric, breath, suggestive dialog. You should craft the Lovers fantasies to fulfill your own.

Using the Story Seed. Re roll the Seed until you are titillated or simply invent your own. Let the setting, timing, or social dynamic flow from the selected seed. Don't overthink it. Usually your first naughty thought is the best. If in doubt, just put it in your own life.

Using Lovers. Use the name of the Lover to spark personality or ideas on how to visualize them. You can give them pet names to help with this. Lovers can encounter your character separately or together, you decide. So you could write a love triangle or a threesome (or both!) with two or more lovers.

The tables and dice are only a tool. You should always change a seed or kink or number of lovers as you wish. You should always feel free to reroll the dice, add new fantasies or change the story in any way that sparks arousal.

You can play a Campaign game of Sexy Stories by carrying over Lovers from previous sessions.

Example of play (lesbian)

Main Character (MC): Rose

- Lovers roll: 4 → two lovers
- Names: "Lauren" and "Nancy"
- Seed roll: 5,6 → 56 Holidays

Lauren – Kink 1: 3,3 → Toys & Devices
Nancy – Kink 1: 4,4 → Over-the-knee lap play

Scene 1 (Sexual Tension): Rose's Journal
I pick a sunlit patio for brunch; Lauren arrives in cream linen, unhurried, and Nancy follows in a sundress. We talk books and a new gallery until the second mimosa loosens the air. When the server walks away, Nancy says that she's craved old-fashioned correction: over a lap, skirt bunched, a firm hand and the safety of being held. The table goes quiet for a beat. Lauren's smile tilts; she meets my eyes and says she'd like a front row seat for that and she'd bring a toy.

"Well you would have to be a good girl." I reply. Nancy nods aroused: Lauren lifts her glass in a small toast. When the bill comes, Lauren suggests her place "to continue the conversation," and as we stand, Nancy suggestively bends over to pick up her handbag. Her short sundress hitches showing white panties underneath. "Ooops" she demurs as we leave together.

Roll second fantasies, then write Scene 2 (Fulfil):
Lauren – Kink 2: 1,2 → Spanking
Nancy – Kink 2: 6,2 → Training

Scene 2 (Sexual Release):
The three of us retire to Lauren's hotel room. (continue, fulfilling as many fantasies as I feel works in explicit detail .....)
